

Journal of the Belarusian State University. International Relations

CALL FOR PAPERS

«Journal of the Belarusian State University. International Relations» was founded by the Belarusian State University in 2017. It is a professional, open access double blind peer-reviewed international journal that aims to involve scholars from around the world. The journal provides a platform for different theoretical and thematic approaches to the fields of international relations and international law.

«Journal of the Belarusian State University. International Relations» is a multidisciplinary scientific journal. It promotes cooperation between scholars both in Belarus and abroad who are interested in different aspects of international relations, foreign policy and international law.

Famous scientists from Belarus, Germany, Lithuania, Poland, Russia, The United Kingdom, Ukraine are among the editorial board.

Publication frequency. 2 issues per year (June and December).

Charges. The journal does not charge article processing charges or submission charges.

Language: English.

Indexation. The journal is included in the list of the leading periodicals recommended by the Higher Attestation Commission of the Republic of Belarus for publishing doctoral research results in the field of history, politics and law. The journal is included in the system of the Russian Science Citation Index (RISC) Scientific Electronic Library «Elibrary.ru» (https://elibrary.ru/title\_info.asp?titid=64259), Google Scholar (2017).

Submit an article: <https://journals.bsu.by/index.php/internationalRelations>

